Alumni members thanked the ARC Noida campus for arranging & organizing the event & giving them an opportunity to meet their faculty & batch mates for interacting and reuniting with them after a such long-long time.

Everyone bid a virtual goodbye to each other with a wish to meet in person in the near future for such reunions.

STAFF DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME

"The best development programmes change the way people see themselves."

– John Bright

Jaipuria Institute of Management, Noida organized the Staff Development Workshop 2022 on the theme "Collaboration & Team Bonding" on February 26, 2022. The session was conducted under the guidance of Dr. Dayanand Pandey (Director, Jaipuria Institute of Management, Noida). The resource person of this workshop was Dr. Sudanshu Pathak, CHRO, JK Tyres. The guest was felicitated by presenting the customary green certificate at the inaugural session.

The session was steered by Dean Administration Dr. VK Tomar. He welcomed all the staff members and thanked them for their support and participation in the workshop. He emphasized that a new bonding will develop from the learnings of the workshop. He then welcomed Dr. Deepankar Chakrabarti, Dean Research and Dr. Dayanand Pandey, Director, Jaipuria Institute of Management, Noida.

Dr. Deepankar Chakrabarti addressed all the staff members on the theme: 'Importance of Data'. He explained how the data helps you to improve quality of life for people you support. Data increases efficiency. Effective data collection and analysis will allow you to direct scarce resources where they are most needed. He talks about on "Data Literacy". Data literacy is the ability to read, work with, analyze and argue with data. It's a skill that empowers all levels of employees to ask the right questions of data, build knowledge, make decisions, and communicate meaning to others. He also discussed about the importance of two C's: Curiosity and Creativity to deal with data. Data is future centric and very important.

Elaborating the importance of data further, Director of the institute, Dr. Dayanand Pandey spoke about the importance of data accuracy in his inaugural address. He mentioned that the data literacy would give an edge to your professional as well as personal life. It gives boost to your confidence. He then emphasize on 10 models to inculcate in daily routine at work i.e. Freedom, Governance, Responsibility, Stakeholders Success, Positive Attitude, Loyalty with efficiency, Gratitude, Manifestation, Ethics and Happiness.

MAJOR HIGHLIGHTS

Later, Dr. Sudhanshu Pathak conducted the technical training session was in the lush green campus for all staff members in the presence of two student Coordinators Ms Riddhi Gupta and Ms Sweta Bharti. Training began with the division of all members into four teams of seven members each, and each team was asked to name their team, which were 1. Team Narshimbha, 2. Team Victory 3. Team Tridev 4. Team Sudarshan. Staff members present in the workshop were Vinod kumar, Daljeet Kaur, Kanchan Mehra, Rajesh Kumar Tiwari, Akhilesh Kumar Tiwari, Deepika lal, Sanjeev Vashisht, Sunil Bhatt, Ranjeet Singh Rawat, Rekha Kanodia, Ashish Thukral, Monika Pant, Amit Kumar Pandey, Sarika Singh, Manik Chandra Pandey, Sharmila Sharma, Ripu Daman Singh, Ajay Rana, Parvindra Singh, Susheel Kumar, Arun Kumar, Basant Kumar Pant, Sumer Singh, Rakhi Dixit, Rajkumari, Bandana Rana, Kubernath and Payal.. They divided themselves in above 4 teams.

After teams' formation, 5 Development Activities were carried out consecutively by each team. The first was Slogan Making, in which each team had to create a slogan in which Narsimbha team was declared the winner. The second game was Passing Ball, in which two teams were combined into one, respectively. Team 1 & 2 and Team 3 & 4 were merged for this game. Group of Team 3 and 4 won the game. This activity was based on the physical activities, which also helped in developing alertness in the person. In the third game, Crossing River each participant had to cross an imagined river with their team. This activity helped to foster team spirit and unity. The fourth game was Ball Passing, in which each participant was given a pipe and was required to pass a ball through it and drop it into a bowl while reaching the distance without dropping the ball. An exhilarating game that helped participants improving their agility and teamwork. The fourth team won this game, and then two more games were played, The Mummy and The Eiffel Tower, both of which taught how to make the best use of our resources by using our presence of mind.

All of these activities not only served to alleviate anxiety but also helped participants to get to know one other in a better way. The event was then concluded with a vote of thanks to Dr. Sudhanshu Pathak for leading an outstanding session and to all of the staff members for devoting time to this programme from their hectic schedule.

After the successful completion of the Programme, a delicious lunch was hosted by the institute for all the participants. Later staff feedback was also conducted through a google questionnaire about the quality of the programme and also inviting suggestions for the future. Staff members opined that they got tremendously benefitted by participating in the programme and came to understand how working as a team can bring more faster and efficient results. All of them suggested having more and more such development programmes on regular intervals.
