Fin-De-Code: Unraveling the World of Finance

Hiranya, the Finance club, organized an intellectually stimulating event, "Fin-De-Code". The triumph of the event is attributed to the collective efforts of Team Hiranya and the active participation of all the participants.

Event Details:

The competition comprised three exciting rounds, engaging 15 teams, each consisting of two participants. The event kicked off at 3:00 PM, setting the stage for an afternoon of financial exploration.

Competition Structure:

Round 1 – Newspaper Round:

Within a five-minute time limit, teams tackled the task of highlighting finance-related keywords from newspapers. The competitive spirit was established in this round, as only the top 12 teams advanced.

Round 2 – Crossword Round:

The top 12 teams engaged in solving financial riddles through a crossword puzzle. The first 8 teams to complete the puzzle earned a spot in the final round.

Round 3 – Discuss Round:

The final and decision-maker round required each team to choose a fitting article and present their thoughts within 5 minutes. Prof. Ritika Gugnani evaluated the discussions. A unique chit system determined the sequence, ensuring fair play. Teams later in the sequence couldn't use more than 10% of the information shared by previous teams. A Q&A session added an interactive element, with the audience contributing to the evaluation.

Winners:

• First Position – Team Achievers

Members: Prachi Paresh & Ashish Samuel Jonathan

Prize: Rs 2000

• Second Position – Team Gladiators

Members: Ananya Naithani & Anurag Varshney

Prize: Rs 1000

In addition to honoring intelligence, the occasion promoted a better comprehension of finance. Fin-De-Code event was successful in establishing a space where individuals could share perceptive viewpoints and release their financial savvy.

Visit to Nehru Planetarium with NGO Kids: Disha CSR

Disha CSR organized a memorable visit to the Nehru Planetarium for children from 'Mala Gram Smriti Home', an NGO dedicated to the welfare of underprivileged children. The initiative was aimed at providing educational and recreational experiences to the kids. The journey commenced at 10:00 am with 22 children accompanied by three caretakers and junior coordinators.

The highlight was a 40-minute show that captivated the children. The immersive video presentation showcased the history of stars and planets, providing a surreal experience akin to being in space. The children thoroughly enjoyed the visualizations and were engaged throughout the session.

Following the show, Jaipuria student volunteers gathered for refreshments where the children showcased their talents. It was heartening to see their enthusiasm and intelligence as they demonstrated skills in various subjects including General Knowledge, Mathematics, and Geography.

After a delightful time at the planetarium, the CSR team embarked on their return journey filled with laughter, singing, and dancing. The children's energy added joy to the trip.

Corporate Charades

The Corporate Charades Challenge hosted by INVICTUS, the Marketing Club, was held on February 21, 2024, at Jaipuria Institute of Management, Noida. The event aimed to showcase the creativity, wit, and acting skills of participating teams while decoding corporate company names through charades. The atmosphere was buzzing with excitement as everyone got into the challenge, adding their humor and clever ideas.

Teams took turns enacting various corporate company names, with their teammates guessing their identities amidst an atmosphere filled with energy and excitement. The essence of teamwork permeated every aspect of the challenge, as teammates collaborated seamlessly to decipher and enact intricate corporate identities. From brainstorming strategies to executing their performances, each team exemplified the power of synergy and cooperation. It was an experience that surpassed mere competition; it was a testament to the joy of coming together, embracing creativity, and celebrating shared moments of laughter and camaraderie. After an exhilarating display of creativity and quick thinking, the following teams emerged victorious: 1st position was bagged by Manifestors, 2nd position was bagged by ASP and 3rd position was bagged by Triple Threat. The Corporate Charades Challenge was a testament to the creativity and camaraderie within the corporate community, providing a platform for participants to showcase their talents and bond over shared experiences. INVICTUS looks forward to hosting more such engaging events in the future, fostering creativity, collaboration, and fun among its members and the broader student community. The Corporate Charades Challenge was way beyond what anyone expected. It wasn't just about winning prizes; it was about having a blast and making memories.

Be Your Own Boss Professional Development Program

The "Be Your Own Boss Professional Development Program," An initiative by Whisper & Gillette Venus India in partnership with Right Side Story LLP, was held at the Jaipuria Institute of Management, Noida, on 21st February 2024 organized by Career Management Committee Noida. The program was designed to inspire and empower individuals to embrace being their bosses, focusing on comprehensive personal and professional development.

The event brought together a diverse group of participants eager to explore various aspects of self-leadership and professional grooming standards. The program's curriculum was meticulously crafted to ensure a holistic development approach, emphasizing the importance of self-reliance, confidence, and personal grooming in achieving professional success.

Key discussions during the program centered around the significance of self-awareness and personal branding in today's competitive environment. Speakers shared their industry experience and insights on the critical role of personal presentation and its impact on professional opportunities and perceptions in the workplace.

Interactive workshops provided participants with hands-on experience in personal grooming, including skincare, attire selection, and posture. These sessions were designed to help participants understand the direct correlation between personal grooming and professional confidence, empowering them to present their best selves in professional contexts.

The Gillette Venus and Whisper goodies were provided to the students highlighting that personal grooming goes hand in hand with professional etiquette and is essential for making a positive impression in any professional setting.

The program also emphasized the psychological aspects of being one's boss, including the importance of self-motivation, resilience, and the ability to navigate challenges independently. Through engaging activities and discussions, participants were encouraged to reflect on their personal goals and the steps they need to take to achieve them while maintaining high standards of personal and professional conduct.

In conclusion, the "Be Your Own Boss Professional Development Program" successfully delivered a comprehensive learning experience by highlighting the significance of personal grooming and self-reliance in professional development and provided participants with the tools and confidence needed to forge their paths in their professional journeys, embodying the ethos of being their bosses in every sense.
